Phila. Inquirer ran a special story, 2/4/73 re top secret Pentagon project "Codename Jason." It is a division of the Institute for Defense Analyses, and is made up of promient physicists and scientists that the gov't has assembled to provide secret tech. advice on matters such as ABM, bombing, electronic warfare. Some references to them in Pent Papers. This story carries it further, based on research. Only a few names are known, but one of the participants was Dr. Luis Alvarez of Berkely.
